

Kaohsiung(高雄) Beauty near the Ocean

Kaohsiung(高雄) is the biggest city in southern Taiwan, and there are many places that are very close to the ocean. It is famous for its harbors, beaches, and delicious seafood. Let's explore some fun things you can see and do in Kaohsiung(高雄)!

Have you heard of Sizihwan(西子灣) Bay? There, you can not only appreciate beautiful ocean views but also watch the sunset. Near the bay, you'll find National Sun Yat-sen University. You can walk on sandy beaches, sail the boat, go canoeing, and enjoy the fresh air and pretty scenery.

Another exciting place is Cijin(旗津) Island. You can get there by ferry or drive through an undersea tunnel. On the island, there are golden beaches, old temples, and tasty seafood. Don't forget to try grilled squid at the local food stalls.

What's more, Kaohsiung(高雄) is full of interesting places to explore, and some of its hidden treasures are Qieding(茄萣), Yongan(永安), Mituo(彌陀), and Ziguan(梓官). These areas are perfect for learning about nature, tasting local dishes, and discovering Taiwan's culture.

Have you seen the Black-faced Spoonbill? If not, you must visit Qieding(茄萣) in winter. Qieding(茄萣) Wetland is like a big, outdoor classroom where you can enjoy watching migratory birds. Yongan(永安) is a small fishing village where people catch lots of fish and crabs. You can try tasty dishes made with the day's catch. In addition, Grouper farming in Yongan(永安) is the pride of the Taiwanese fishery. Its production ranks top 2 in the world.

In Mituo(彌陀), you can cycle along the path to enjoy old fishing villages or visit Nanliao(南寮) Seaside Lightspot. It's a great place to play by the sea or picnic with your family. What's more, Ziguan(梓官) is special for its colorful temples and traditional markets where you can find local snacks and handmade crafts.

Kaohsiung(高雄) is a wonderful place to get away from the busy city, enjoy the ocean, eat tasty seafood, and have adventures. Whether you like playing on the beach, eating fresh fish, or learning about nature, this city has something special for everyone. Come and visit Kaohsiung's amazing ocean world for yourself!